To Whom It May Concern:

I, Sasha I. Gurke, hereby inform the FBPE that Mr. Julio C. Banks, P.E. has performed the complete translation of structural examples from the book titled:

Roark's Formulas for Stress and Strain, 7th Edition

The work consisted of taking the static text from electronic format and then converting it to a functional (i.e., live) document in Mathcad format.

Julio created 74 examples with a total of approximately 870 pages.

It should be noted that this letter is simply a certification that the work was completed to our satisfaction. Furthermore, the utilization of this letter is only intended for the purpose of CE (Continuing Education) work reporting to the FBPE for license renewal credit for Julio C. Banks, P.E.

Sincerely,

Sasha I. Gurke
